When the Third district court opened yesterday morning, the counsel of H. O. Spencer, who is charged with the nurder of Sarzeaut Pike, asked a postponement of the trial for about a couple of weeks.

Mr. Peters, however, objected to the ement, and it was finally decided to take the case up on Monday next.

B. B. ROBBETS SURBENDERS. ictment for unlawful cobabitation ha dictaent for unlawful colabilitation has been pending for some time, surrendered himself to the marshal yesterday menuing, and on being arraigned before Judge Anderson, entered a pien of guility.

Mr. Young asked for a delay of two weeks before pronouncing sentences. Mr. Peters and he, however, did not see eve to eye in this matter. The defendant, the former said, was arrested in the fail of 1886, was released on bail, and when his case was called it was found that he had left the country. His bond however, was not forfeited, because up to the present time be had been unable to flad it.

Mr. Young was of the opinion that the government should not attempt to wreak vongeance upon the defendant. He had voluntarily surrendered himself, and the request for a faw days time was not at all an aureasonable one. Kind acts on the part of a judge were not less on the recipient of them.

The court—Has he a family:

materially discommode him if he was not granted the time asload for.

Mr. Roberts—My family would be put to considerable inconvenience. I desired a few days to arrange for their welfare.

The court—Would a week be sufficient? Mr. Roberts—I think, your honor, that it might be

Mr. Young at this point consulted with his client, and then said that, rather than have any trouble or dispute, he would end the matter, and the defendant would be on hand. Wednesslay morning, if that would sail, the prosecutor.

Mr. Peturs had no objection to make to that, but suggested that the bond be increased to $2,000. The bond was given for that amount, and Mr. Roberts will appear on Wednesslay morning for sentences.
